- d) Rolvenden Postcards:
The Clerk reminded Members that some of the legacy left by Mrs Sykes to the Parish Council was spent a few years ago on purchasing Rolvenden postcards which had been part of Eric Lavell's collection. Apart from the odd occasion it is very difficult for most parishioners to view them and Michael Hook has expressed a desire to publish a book displaying the postcards. Local resident, Jackie King, has offered to put a book together with a short explanation accompanying the cards and will arrange for it to be printed. Jackie King would like to have the Parish Council's consent to publish the postcards in a book. The plan is that copies of the book will be available for purchase locally and that sales of the book should cover any expenditure on preparing and printing the book. The Clerk was asked to thank Jackie King for offering to do this and to also ask if any of the postcards could be displayed in the recently decorated Gallery in the village hall.
Resolved: To give consent to Jackie King to produce a book with the postcards.
